They have collected together for this purpose all the requisite registers and maps so that the exact whereabouts and extent of these lands can be studied, and have completed a special one of the province of Buenos Aires in which all the late sales and their sites are detailed. They also have copies of plans of National lands sold and for sale, both within and outside the exterior frontier line of the provinces of Buenos Aires, Santa Fe, and Cordova.

A thorough knowledge of the laws that govern the matter, and of the quality of the lands, is the best guarantee they can offer their customers.

Work of Expiation

HUMBLY OFFERED

To the Eternal Father of Infinite Mercey

UNDER

BUENOS AIRES.

The Object of the Work

The Object of the Work is to found a congregation of Secular Priests, whose lives will be dedicated entirely to promote, in every way possible, the honor and glory of Our Lord Jesus Christ in His Great Sacramental Manifestation upon the earth, and to expiate, by penitential works, the outrages and sins committed by men against His Divine Presence in that Mystery of His ineffable love. We hope thereby to help to appease the just anger of the Eternal Father provoked against the world by their sins against His Son, and to obtain for this dark unbelieving age the Divine light of His Grace.

The work will be commenced quietly in a humble house in London. There twenty four priests will live together in community, and will prostrate themselves in twos day and night, like Moses, before the door of the Tabernacle, offering up there to God through His Incarnate Son Jesus Christ, ceaseless supplications and expiations for the conversion of England and for the world.

When this chapter of Priests of the most Holy Sacrament has been formed, then we shall begin to build in the City of London a magnificent monument of Expiation, a Metropolitan Cathedral Church, which will be constructed of sacred stones gathered from the ancient Catholic Churches of England, Ireland and Scotland, which are lying desolate and for the most part in ruins on the ground; we shall then be able to offer up the great Sacrifice of Expiation, virtually in the very same Churches which, more than three hundred years ago, were desecrated and profaned.

The Founders

By virtue of an 'Apostolic Brief' the Expiation Work has been initiated in South America, where many churches are associated with the proje tel work. But its great centre of action will be London, the Metropolis of the Apostacy from the faith and love of the Incarnate Word in the Holy Sacrament, an Apostacy which, alas! is spreading rapidly everywhere, and which calls for an expiation corresponding to the magnitude of the offence.

We need for this purchase of the Expiation-House and Chapel £5000, and an equal sum to serve as a capital for the annual support of the Expiation Worship. In order to raise the necessary Funds for the House I am inviting 'a hundred' persons in South America to contribute £40 each. Such a Donor will be considered as a Founder of the House, and as such will enjoy special purviloges.

Many persons in the Republics of the Pacific have already inscribed their names as Founders of this work, among whom are the Archbishops of Lima, Mexico, Heliopolis, the Bishops of Cuzco, Truxillo, Loja, Puno, La Serena and Chachapoyas; also Pierola, Prado, Daza, Cossio, Concha, Garcia y Garcia, Lavalle, Larrañaga, Garcia Moreno, Oyague, Pinto, Panizo, Pinillos, Puente, Rivero, Romaña, Sarratea, Taforo, Varela, Rodrigo, Magill, Vigors, Grace, Tynan, Madden, Murphy, &c. &c.

I most sincerely hope that in the River Plate a similar zeal will be manifested in behalf of a work by those whom it most intimately concerns.

Privileges of the Founders

1st—They will participate in the prayers and Expiations offered up in the Chapel.

2nd—A Mass will be said for them every month in perpetuum.

3rd—They will receive hospitality gratis in the Expiation House on visiting London.

4th—Their names will be engraved on a memorial slab, which will be fixed in the wall of the Edifice.

5th—Their portraits will be hung up in the Expiation House in grateful remembrance.

6th—They will receive a yearly report of the progress of the work.

NOTE—Each Founder will be presented with a Diploma, and a lithograph of the Holy Prophet Jeremias, executed by Jeckel a famous Munich Artist, which can be seen in the Library of Ygon y Hnos.

Co-operators.

Any donation, however small, towards the support of the Perpetual Adoration of the Most Holy Sacrament in the Expiation Chapel will be gratefully accepted. All such donors will, in return for their charity and piety, share in the prayers and sacrifices offered up in the Chapel.

APPROBATIONS.

His Holiness Pio Nono

The Work of Expiation will do more than any other work to appease the anger of the Eternal Father, and to draw down His merciful compassion upon England and the world.

The Cardinal Archbishop Manning.

With all our heart we recommend this your work of Expiation to the benign protection of our venerable Brothers, the Archbishops and Bishops, as well as to the piety and alms of the faithful, not only in North and South America, but in whatever part of the world you may be in.

The Apostolic Delegate of the River Plate.

I unite my 'obolo' to the contributions for the construction of the Expiation House, and will ask God to bless it with most copious benedictions.

The Apostolic Delegate of Peru.

I earnestly pray God to bless those who help you in your Holy Work, and to crown your hopes by granting you to see ere long the new redemption of your country.

The Archbishop of Buenos Aires.

Your work I consider most holy and commendable.

The Archbishop of Lima.

We sincerely hope that your project may meet with all the success that so Holy and great an enterprise merits, for this end we will not cease to implore the benediction of Heaven.

The Archbishop of Berito.

To found the Work of Expiation is nothing more nor less than to ask for the renovation of the world through Jesus Christ our Divine Mediator and Redeemer.

The Bishop of Montevideo.

Your Holy Work not only meets with my most entire approval, but I desire all my beloved flock to contribute towards it with their charitable alms, and to unite their suffrages and prayers with mine that God may bless and make fruitful your efforts, and grant you one day to see the crowning of your great work, which in my opinion merits the applause of all true Catholics.

The Bishop of Martyropolis

Your interesting work meets with our utmost sympathy.

The Bishop of Cuzco.

All Catholics throughout the world should contribute towards the realization of so great a work.

The Bishop of Cuyo.

I consider your great and holy work to be the most sublime inspiration that Divine Providence could have imprinted on your heart.

The Bishop of Arequipa.

We approve, and bless your great and holy work.

The Bishop of Loja.

I feel convinced that the work of Expiation will be prolific in blessings for the Church of God, and especially for England.

The Bishop of La Serena.

I warmly applaud this most important work, and will do all in my power to support and propagate it in my Diocese.

The Bishop of Panama.

I congratulate you on forming so great a project.

The Bishop of Popayan.

The work of Expiation will be a fountain of new graces for the world, and will hasten on the hour of God's Mercy.

Monsenor Taforo.

I most cordially associate myself with your great idea, and desire you to consider me from to-day as one of the Founders of the Expiation House.

Monseñor Roca.

I deplore my unworthiness before God, and my being bound to this city and diocese with chains difficult to break. Were it not so, instead of manifesting to you by writing my great appreciation of your work, I would lay aside my pen, and fly away to the House of Expiation and prayer, and there associate myself with the happy adorers of the most Holy Sacrament, and swing in my unworthy hands the turible—symbol of your ardent and fragrant prayers.

But there remains for me, at least, the consolation of uniting myself in spirit with you and your fellow priests, and of urging all the faithful to contribute to so great a work with their prayers and alms, so certain am I that he who converts to God a single soul has already saved his own.

NOTICE.

Contributions towards the EXPIATION FUND will be received at the National Bank, Buenos Ayres, to the account of Francisco A. Delgado, and by myself at No. 383 Calle Esmeralda, Buenos Ayres.

Associated Press Telelegram

HAVAS' AGENCY

Paris, 16th (Evening)

To-day another debate on the Education Bill in the Deputies, owing to suppression of Article 7 by Senate; and in order not to delay the law it was sanctioned as sent down by Senate. The Minister repeated his statement of the 9th inst. with respect to the Government action, and a vote of confidence in the Government was passed—338 in favor of Government, 147 against.

POLITICAL MINERVA.

Whoever reads the papers, and judges the country by them, will come to the conclusion that the people want civil war, and that a bloody battle must be fought, either around this city or in the camps of this province, to decide the Presidential question.

In some countries the Press so truthfully represents opinion, manners and morals, that the newspaper may be a very safe criterion wherewith to judge the people; but of all the errors that it is possible for any man to commit, the greatest by far would be to judge Buenos Ayres by its newspapers, or the whole Republic by its Press; and yet where to draw the line is the difficulty. The Mitre party in this city is admittedly composed of the most respectable and influential people: men who, for the most part, have as much at stake in the welfare and prosperity of the nation as the members of any other political party in the country, yet it would be a calumny on that party and its members to judge it or them by their organs.

The Tejedor, or Lyrico party, is an offshoot of the Mitristas and Alsinistas; its respectability, perhaps, suffers as much from its energy as from the intemperance of its organ.

The Roca party, due to its alliance with power, is the most temperate, and whilst represented by some of the most prominent of our fellow-citizens, enjoys the least influence of all in this city; it holds a majority in the Press, a majority in our Chambers, a majority in the Provinces, and, we believe, a majority in Congress; and it is this sweeping majority which has raised against it such an opposition in this city. The men who oppose it are all arming to the teeth, and the papers who oppose it are writing up civil war and preaching the most open sedition.

But the public of Buenos Ayres is too intelligent and far too influential to allow either a majority to tyrannise or a minority to ruin: and at the eleventh hour an independent party has sprung up, composed of the richest of the Mitristas, the bravest of the Tejedoristas, and the soundest of the Roquistas. These men, whose names have been published in the papers, have evidently come forward animated by no other motive than the purest patriotism, and have courageously proclaimed a candidate who is as good a Mitrista as Mitre himself, as good a Tejedorista as Don Gabriel Ocampo, and as good a Roquista as Dr. Alvear: a candidate who unites the pride of the Porteño with the jealousy of the Provinciano, who recognises all parties, yet is enrolled in none, whose experience is superior to most of our public men, and whose platform is peace and the integrity of the nation.

Don Domingo Sarmiento has sprung from the heads of these contending parties, not through favour or through patronage, but through sheer necessity, being the only man in the political phalanx whose name is a guarantee to the country against the terrible misfortune with which the newspapers threaten us—CIVIL WAR. The irreconcileable Mitristas, Tejedoristas and Roquistas have opened in the papers the most declared hostility against Mr. Sarmiento, and the new issue that now threatens the country is the people against the papers—an issue the sooner decided the better. Mr. Sarmiento has but one organ—the Nacional—a paper remarkable for the sound common sense of its leaders since the opening of the electoral campaign.

If a saint came down from Heaven to stand as candidate for the post of President of this Republic, the first question that would be put to him is, 'To what party did he belong?' If a Mitrista, then the opposition papers would stamp him as another Lucifer; and if a Roquista, then the Patria Argentina and the Nacion would brand him as Beelzebub in disguise. In the long list of names that proclaims Mr. Sarmiento as candidate we scarcely find one that figured in former years in the category of a Sarmientista, which proves what we have already remarked—that however successful a newspaper as a political organ may be, the instant it preaches sedition and civil war its adherents desert it. If the name of Sarmiento is a guarantee of peace and union in this Republic, then each day his party will grow stronger, and even in the short time that elapses before the elections take place, the adhesions to his banner will become so numerous as to form an avalanche of public opinion that will sweep everything, even to the very editors, before it. Were Mr. Sarmiento's name the promise of civil war, the Anchorenas, Aguirres, Unzues, and a hundred other millionaire names would not figure as his supporters: but it is the conviction that Mr. Sarmiento is the only candidate that represents union and concord between Buenos Ayres and the other Provinces that has ranked under his banner the Guerricos, Pereiras, Ocampos, Duportals, Berdiers, Maderos, Frias, &c. &c. These are the men who have a right to be heard in a question of such solemn moment, and these are the men who will carry with them the vote of Buenos Ayres. If these men are not to be listened to, then the sooner we prepare for the consequences the better. Let us look the danger in the face; we have had enough of child's play at Palermo and in the Cuarteles about the town. The Arroyo del Medio is the proper locality for our Bomberos and Tiros Nacionales to hold their 16th, 17th and 25th meetings. 'Pan pan y vino vino.' It will never do to allow the rich and splendidly stocked Province of Buenos Ayres to be overrun by bands of Santa-Fecinos and Santiagueños. We have all too much at stake to have the Huns from Jujuy sweep off millions of cows and tens of millions of sheep. People who have nothing to lose save a month's subscription or so to a newspaper may write sedition in their columns until the rebel types jump from their very forms and stop the Hoe-press—but the issue is too tremendous to be played with any longer. The Republic is worth fighting for; our flocks and 'rodeos' are not to be jeopardized; and if these irreconcilables say they won't have Sarmiento, then let them name their man.

MONTEVIDEO.

(From our own Correspondent.)

March 15th, 1880.

I anticipated justly when I said in my last that things were getting too hot in the political markets to last long. So it has turned out, and a very critical crisis has been produced, the magnitude of which could hardly be calculated upon.

The resignation of President Latorre seems only based upon his impatience at being insulted and otherwise thwarted by the oposition press, which thongh numerous and effective in doing the Government much harm, is hardly a sufficient motive to bring about a political crisis, and throw the country into an acephalous state of administration, as not only has the President resigned, as you will have seen, but also the Vice-President and the whole of the ministry in a body. Should the Assembly accept the resignation of the President and Vice-President, who would be ruler of the land? The Vice-President of the Senate, Singnor Alexander Chucarro, who by the Constitution would be the next in turn as Vice-President of the Senate, is a gentleman of the age of about ninety years (he being one of the conspicuous members of the Constitutional Assembly who in 1829 sanctioned the actual Constitution) and barely able to stand on his pins and thought to be slightly weak in his mind, owing to his age and infirmities, consequently there is no thinking of such a person as president. We want to see what the Assembly resolves upon; in the mean time it is well to call the attention of our readers to the circumstance that the whole ministry of the Provisional Government is out of office, and, though last not least, the brave Minister of Finance; and I anticipate very ill results for his table of control and his separate sheets of valuations of the Custom House goods, enforced twice and no doubt destined to become a victim of unbelievers a second and definitive time, along with his, the Minister's, relative Mr. Wich, head controller of said branch. May they all rest in peace, amen. The new ministry, consequently, will be a fresh set of men, and this may be an advantage in many ways. The old ministry was unpopular, and its resignation should have been accepted in a definitive way when the constitutional order of things was re-established in form and they tendered their resignation in the usual way. Being again re-appointed was the cause of the feeling that the government was to be as irresponsible as before, during the dictatorship, and no doubt this feeling gave rise to the determined opposition of the opposing party, and also gave them a good footing to create a sensation of general disgust against the actual state of things in the mind of the people, as unconstitutional. It seems to me now, that should Latorre reconsider his idea of resigning office, sticking to the forms of the law, and appointing a new and popular ministry, much might be done towards bringing things to a normal state, especially if accompanied by some energetic measures against this tomfoolery of the press, which has been doing a good deal of injury to the country both abroad and here. The dictatorship, if resorted to again, may throw us into many very serious difficulties, one of which would be the necessity, a year hence, of having new elections, and going over the whole machinery of the form to arrive at the same starting point, or else resorting to a perpetual dictatorship, more dangerous still, as it would bring about a civil war and no end of trouble and destruction. I am not afraid of the Assembly accepting the resignation, but I hope no unlimited power will be granted to the president, just for the asking, as it would be unconstitutional, unpopular, and would moreover give a solid ground upon which to base a dangerous opposition.

You see, Sir, the state of things is anything but buoyant in a prospective point of view, and not only may this crisis bring us difficulty in the way pointed out, but it will give the invading party a good footing for a very liberal and very patriotic manifesto to the people, offering to settle matters in a very satisfactory manner if they be only allowed to come into power, and may God deliver us from the infliction of both the manifesto and the restoration of Sr. Varela's administration.

I see that most of the heads of the military constituency have arrived in town just in time to be able to influence in a patriotic way the measures to be adopted for the welfare of the people, and very 'outre' ideas have been going the round of the political circles about new dictators and that sort of thing, which I suppose is only calculated to throw a certain extra weight on the convenience of coming to a decisive and immediate determination of what is to be done by the Assembly in this emergency.

Colonel Latorre's resignation has been accepted by the Assembly, he being absolutely determined to resign; and Signor Vidal was voted in his place. The Secretary of the Assembly went to the Government House to notify his appointment, and he (Sr. Vidal) will not accept and says he considers that the law obliges him to hold office as President of tse Senate 'ad interim,' and that such is what he will do. At this moment the chiefs of the different corps, I am told, are with Sr. Vidal to ask him to accept, and nothing is known of the result.

IMPORTANT FROM CHILE.

(Telegram to 'Nacion')

Santiago, March 16th.

The bombardment of Arica by Chilian vessels, which has now lasted several days, as a reprisal for the forts firing on the Huascar and killing Commander Thompson, has caused great damage, but as the houses are mostly of 'adobe' and iron there has been no fire.

The allies were forced to retire, leaving in Arica only sufficient artillerymen to serve the guns. Three miles from the city some few troops have been left in an entrenched camp.

The Huascar and Angamos continue the blockade.

A division of the Chilian army disembarked at Islay and Mollendo without resistance, the garrison flying. The allies, fearing this landing of Chilians, sent the guns from Mollendo and the railway locomotives to Arequipa.

One of the Chilian Divisions which landed at Mollendo marched on Mejia and Tambo; there was a trifling skirmish at the latter place, but the Peruvians fled, leaving 17 prisoners. To prevent any supplies reaching the allies, and to embarras their operations, the Chilians destroyed the telegraph wires, part of the railway between Mollendo and Arequipa, and the mole at the former place.

The Second Chilian Division marched on the 12th for Moquegua, with 800 cavalry under General Baquelano.

The news that the Chilians had landed at Ilo created consternation in Lima. On the 9th it was as yet hardly believed, and the killing of Thompson at Arica was celebrated as a victory, and it was said that the forts had blown the Huascar into little bits.

Exchange on London at Lima down to 7d.

The Chief of the Staff of the allied army at Moquegua issued an order to give furlough to all the Bolivian soldiers that asked for it, but to put the word 'Coward' as a note in the papers of each. This created intense disgust in the Bolivian army.

Nothing further of any interest.

ACCIDENT AT THE MINT.

Yesterday morning, at 10 o'clock, the roof over the foundry at the Mint, now in construction in Calle Defensa, fell in and was destroyed, partially damaging the walls. Since the machinery for the Mint has not arrived as yet, and the construction of the furnaces not having been commenced, the damage done only affects the building itself. A number of workmen were on the roof and fell to the ground, a distance of some ten metres: seven of them were very seriously injured, and one was said to be in a dying condition. At two o'clock the Minister of Hacienda arrived to inspect the scene of the accident, which must be ascribed to the inferior material, bad workmanship and very slight dimensions of the iron rafters. If the plans of Mr. Freund, which the Mint Commission presented some two years since, and which indicated a much stronger construction than the one now employed, particularly strong cast-iron beams instead of the very fragile iron work now put up, had been adopted, the present accident would not have happened.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The news from Europe by the French mail steamer Niger shows that tears of a war are predominant all over the Old Continent. The German Press, in advocating the increase of the army, affects to be very much afraid of the designs of France and Russia. In the latter country all hopes of Constitutional reform have been shelved, and sterner measures than ever have been taken by the Government against the Nihilists. In Ireland there are some few signs that the worst is past. Spring weather and emigration to the United States had set in simultaneously. All the Roman Catholic Bishops of Ireland, among the first the venerated 'John of Tuam,' have come forward to bear written and verbal evidence that nothing can be fairer or more impartial than the way in which the Dublin Mansion House Fund is distributed. Archbishop MacCabe, of Dublin, attended the Committee meeting for the first time, 'to enter my solemn protest against the charge brought against this Committee;' His Grace added that he was glad the unfounded charge had been made, 'as it has given an occasion for a great and generous outburst of approval of the proceedings of this Committee.' The Protestant Archbishop of Dublin, Dr. Trench, bore similar testimony. This is conclusive. Subscriptions continued to pour in on the Lord Mayor from all parts of the world, Australia being far away at the head of the list with £29,000. The Lord Mayor declared that, but for Australia, relief would have had to be suspended at one time. A 'breeze' sprang up between the Mansion House and Duchess of Marlborough's Committees, but it does not appear to have been of much moment.

Shamrocks were the most notable things in town yesterday, and were to be seen in hats and button-holes in all quarters. Mr. White, the distinguished naturalist, would, perhaps, have hesitated about giving a certificate that all the bunches displayed were the real trefoil of Erin; but, in the printing-office of the Standard, there was a supply of the 'genuine article,' which the owner, a Kerry man, generously distributed free to all comers. The time-honoured process of 'drowning' in the evening what had been worn during the day was duly carried out at every Irish board in town.

The annual Pic-nic and Athletic Sports Meeting of the Southern Railway employees has been fixed to come off (W. and P.P.) on the 29th inst. From what we hear of the preparations, it will even surpass the previous most successful 'reunions' of the Southern Railway men. Lanus is the spot chosen for the feast and fun.

Our esteemed colleague the Southern Cross has made a decided step in advance in the new supplement, The Catholic Fireside, which it now distributes to its numerous readers. The Irish families in the camp cannot fail to appreciate this effort on the part of Dean Dillon to supply them with a species of literature which is invaluable in every home where young people are growing up, as, while it amuses, it instructs, and keeps religion and morality constantly before the eyes of the growing generation. The C. F. is very nicely illustrated and the reading matter is of the highest class.

The news from the West Coast is of the usual tenor—Chilians going ahead and Peruvians going the other way. Auctions of Tarapaca nitrate are now regularly held at Valparaiso. A sign of the beginning of the end is that Dictator Pierola's popularity is said to be waning, and although this news comes from Chilian sources, it is likely enough to be true. It is time for some friendly Power to mediate; otherwise it is hard to say when or where Chile will stop.

The weather looked so dubious yesterday morning that a witty camp subscriber who visited our office early opined that it would be wiser to 'postpone Patrick's Day till the middle of next week;' he was probably thinking of Mr. Martin's performance at the Opera House—taking a part for the whole, in fact; but the sky cleared shortly after, and we do not remember a finer or more balmy 17th of March. From all appearances, however, a dash of rain is not far off, and it will be very welcome in all parts.

Sr Zorilla, Minister of the Interior, will shortly start for the provinces in connection with the projected extension of the railways there.

The Prensa still keeps 'pounding away,' as the late Iron Duke said, at the Oficina de Tierras scandal. The trial now before the Courts will probably throw a deal of fresh light on this important question.

There was rather a lull in politics yesterday and the day passed without any new candidate coming to the front. The tug of war is so close now that the country will soon be out of suspense.

The unfortunates who had anything to do with that defunct institution which went under the misnomer of the 'Popular' Argentina were much exercised yesterday by a paragraph in the morning papers to the effect that the case would come on before the Commercial Court of Appeal. It is to be feared that the dividend, if any, will be of microscopical dimensions.

Ho! Ho! No more rockets. The Chief of Police has forbidden the newspapers to any longer use rockets for announcing bulletins. What on earth will our colleagues do now? The order does not affect the Standard in the least: We use a big Gong on bulletin occasions. It's in splendid tune, as all who were at the Opera House last night can testify.

Lightning conductors are to be placed on the Capitania. Indeed? It's well they thought of it.

There was nothing fresh from Banda Oriental yesterday, excepting our friend 'Ralph's' letter, which will be found in another column: it gives some particulars of the recent political bobbery down there.

Superstitious people will see an evil augury in the very serious accident at the new Mint yesterday, of which we give particulars in another column. It is the old old story: bad materials and workmanship, and no Municipal Inspectors to see that things are done properly. Are we never to learn anything till a dozen Congressmen, half-a-dozen Aldermen and Town Councillors, a Bishop or a Foreign Minister is killed by one of these too frequent building accidents? It is really monstrous that a building for the very National Government can be 'scamped' as easily as the veriest lath and plaster house in town. In Europe or the United States it would go hard with the contractors.

There is breezy news from Corrientes—National Guard called out: the goose step the order of night noon and morning, and the distinguished Colonel Go-and-Come (Bairbiene) named Commander-in-Chief. Nothing is said about the Corrientes fleet, but it supposed to be all there. Electioneering is, of course, at the bottom of all this fresh fuss.

Dr Eugene Cambaceres leaves for Europe to-day in the Savoie. Before he sights the Marseilles lighthouse all our electioneering troubles will be more than half over, one way or the other.

Dn. Nicolas Calvo arrived from Europe in the Magellan: he is at present in Montevideo and will be here in a few days. We feel the greatest pleasure in saluting this distinguished Argentine writer and welcoming him back to the land of his birth after an absence of so many years: he will find it difficult to recognise in the stately Buenos Ayres of to-day the city he left so many years ago.

Owing to great pressure on our columns we are obliged to hold over the news per Salier and Niger, as also Her Majesty's Speech on opening the House.

The raffle at Belgrano to put up a new statue to the great General, in place of the one recently demolished by some midnight tosyerers, produced 16,000$ m|c. Good for Belgrano.

Maestro Bassi will take his benefit this evening at the Florida Gardens. Weather and politics permitting, all the world and his wife and daughters are highly likely to attend, as Bassi is deservedly a prodigious favourite.

The National Government has issued a decree giving 400 pats. to Mr. Manuel Alberdi, to make a trip to the provinces to collect specimens of the mineral productions of the Republic for the coming Buenos Ayres Exhibition. We hear that the plans of the building have been completed and laid before the Municipality.

Dr. John Andrew Dominguez is to be presented with a work of art by the Tiros Nacionales and Bomberos for being the inventor of these very patriotic corps. How many of the world's greatest inventors have gone to their graves without as much as 'thank you,' much less a work of art.

There was a storm at Parana about a week ago that threatened to blow the place bodily down the river: it contented itself, however, with half the roofs and ranchos in the place: the rain was of the c.d. and p.p. description.

The America del Sur of Tuesday publishes the text of Father Jordan's magnificent sermon on Sunday last at the Cathedral. It is superb. The Revd. preacher's text was 'Scandal,' and it is needless to say how he handled it. The most striking part of this marvellously eloquent discourse was when the preacher denounced the nineteenth century as the most irreligious and sinful that Time has yet launched from its womb, declaring that History will write on its tombstone:—'Here lies the most scandalous of all the centuries.'

'Order reigns in Warsaw' is the news from Montevideo. In spite of this, however, several refugees who consider absence of body far preferable to presence of mind in such political emergencies have arrived here and mean to stay a while. We hear that Professor Gould of the Cordoba Observatory is at present in the Mount. Several Brazilian families are packing up for a move homewards. Not a few people prognosticate a royal row on t'other side of Jordan before May Day.

Dolores, in this province, is almost as lively a place for editors as the far West in the United States. Our highly estimable colleague the editor of the Patria of that town, was recently thrice made a target of by indignant readers with revolvers in their hand; but, somehow, a portion of that divinity that hedges kings seems also to hover about journalists, and our colleague escaped. It is very hard to hit an editor. 'Thrice is he armed &c.'

IRISH DISTRESS.

"A meeting of the Mansion-house Committee was held yesterday evening. The Lord Mayor, who presided stated that he had received a telegram from New York to the effect that the character and motives of, and the mode of distributing relief by the committee had been publicly questioned, and that it would be desirable to send a sanction of the proceedings by the bishops and priests in the districts where relief is given. He did not think any person in Ireland had ventured to say one word against the way in which the committee had transacted its business. Any man who ventured to do so would be laughed at; but America was a good way off, and it was easy to spread unfounded reports. Seeing those things, he took upon himself the responsibility of sending a telegram to America contradicting the reports. Simultaneouly with the despatch of that telegram he forwarded a letter to every Catholic bishop in Ireland, asking them to state by return of post whether, in their opinion, the committee was worthy or not of public confidence. His Lordship read a telegram which he had sent for publication in the United States, in which he stated that if any person suggests or charges that in the distribution of relief they considered anything but the destitution of those relieved, he asserts that which is without foundation. The Lord Mayor read a reply which he had received from the Roman Catholic Bishop of Galway, and the following from Archbishop Trench:—'Having had some practical share from the beginning in the work of the committee of the Mansion-house Relief Fund and in the distribution of the money of which it has been made the almoner, I feel called to bear witness to the spirit of entire fairness which has presided over all its arrangements and to the absence of all consideration save only the necessities of the applicants which has governed its distribution of the funds intrusted to it."

CHEESE, BUTTER AND SUGAR.

(From the 'Industrial.')

The grand mission of the Industrial Club is being faithfully carried out. The National industries are already feeling its beneficent influence, in this period of political convulsions. It is a struggle between the good and bad. Industry is our ideal, and one of its foremost apostles is Luis Bartoli. The Committee, when visiting the establishment of this gentleman, had opportunity to appreciate the efforts of many years. As one enters the building, fine Appleby machines attract the notice of all; alongside are boilers, pipes, reservoirs and so forth.

The second division comprises the milk department; a large reservoir is filled with the milk of thousands of cows, all sent in from the chacras. Here the graduations are taken and the measures made. Alongside is a machine with boiling water for cleaning the milk tanks and saucepans. Many pipes conduct the milk to the different departments, where it undergoes its change into delicious cheese, something like that the Swiss and French in the Jura butter their bread with. The cheese is manufactured by steam power. Several hundred moulds grace the surrounding shelves; the shapes are most artistic and elaborate, to suit all fancies and all tastes. Special cheese is made for each season of the year.

As one enters the third department, the neophyte is astonished at the care taken in preventing the rays of the sun, dust or wind to penetrate the precincts. A delightful perfume tickles the nose, and the gourmand's appetite is excited at the grand display of cheese wealth, all labelled. Here one gazes on the mellowed properties of a monster Chester or the juicy look of a young Gruyere.

Beneath, in the bowels of the earth, lies a grand butter depot, kept in a perpetual state of freshness by means of a strong current of air.

The division alongside contains a number of boilers and complicated machines for the elaboration of the sugar from milk.

A special department is reserved for the manufacture of oil; vegetable oils are made to perfection, and the machinery here has been got up regardless of expense. Four large reservoirs are nearly full of oil. The oils are destined to many purposes, as medicines, food, darts and industries, cheese, &c. The good properties of the cheese and butter are well known throughout the city, and M. Bartoli has established a reputation for himself in the matter.

As one visits this establishment, the order, taste, cleanliness and superior workmanship are evident. Everthing is in its place, and everything is well kept. The floors are clean and the machines are beautifully polished.

All must admire the patience and perseverance of M. Bartoli; this gentleman has battled through all difficulties with the public authorities and that inveterate prejudice against all national industries. It is a glory for the Industrial Club to bring forward before the public such men as M. Bartoli, that he may be held in the esteem of all for his efforts in fostering our National industries.

RECTIFICATION

To the Editor of the Standard.

Dear Sir

It having come to my knowledge that Mr. James Lawrie has stated in the most public manner "that the gelding now called 'Sargento' formerly named 'Bonnie Dundee' sold by me to Sr. Don Enrique Blaus, is an imported thoroughbred, and not a mestizo as I have certified him to be."

I now beg to state in equally public manner (through the medium of your journal) that any such statement is entirely false, and I hereby challenge Mr. Lawrie to prove it otherwise.

I am, Dear Sir
Yours sincerely
Wm. Kemmis

Las Rosas, 10th March 1880

N.B—I have forwarded copies of this letter to several gentlemen who have heard Mr. Lawrie make this statement.

The gold market ruled a little brisker to-day than yesterday, and prices remained the same. The chief business was for the end of the month which closed weak at 30.55, for April 30.55, for May 30.70, and for December at 30.15, deliverable, which shows an advance of 15 cents for such contracts.

The sad accident at the Mint, particulars of which we give in another column, was only known on 'Change at a late hour. The opinion is general that the iron rafters were not the thing; luckily the machinery from Europe has not arrived yet, so the damage done is not very heavy, but this and other accidents prove too clearly that a public inspector of buildings is much required in this town.

Cedulas keep rising and are now firm at 85, and looking higher. The stock is in certain demand; we suppose to pay off mortgages.

Mr. Schmidt, of San Nicolas, was welcomed on 'Change. He gives the most flattering accounts of the state of the country up North, and admits with the Standard that never before in the annals of Buenos Ayres was there a better season.

Discounters report no Government Proveeduria Bills to be had in market, which shows a great change since last week; to-day they might have been done at 12, but none offered.

Exchange for the Savoie mails ruled to-day at 49⅛-⅜, about £30,000 taken by Government, and 5.22-23 on Antwerp fully a million of francs passed.

The gold sales were:—
For cash 83,100 30.45-50-45
For March 20th 103,000 30.45-50-45
For March 27th 5,000 30.50

For April 30th 10,000 84⅞

Gold at after hours ruled hard and buyers cash offering at 50.

The great news on 'Change was from the Plaza Once. Messrs. Duggan sold this morning from 10,000 to 12,000 arrs. fine mestiza wool at the magnificent price of $140 m|c. This wool comes from Sr. Arevola's estancia, Lobos, and is well-known in the market. Last year it sold, we believe, for $126 m|c., and the price to-day for so very large a lot shows how much the market has risen. Sr. Arevola may well be congratulated on the sale, as although we have had other sales in the Plazas at equally high prices, they were all small lots compared with that now sold, which gives to the sale all the more importance; and we congratulate Messrs Duggan on having completely topped the market by this splendid sale. The business was the talk of the Bolsa this afternoon.

The Salier entered to-day bringing up her own and the Niger's mails; she has brought 800,000 francs in gold to the Carabassa Bank, and has already engaged a full cargo, 10,000 salted hides at 35s and 10 o/o, 2,600 bales at 30s and 10 o/o, and as for passengers she will leave so full that the officers have to give up their cabins.

Exchange this afternoon ruled very active, the Government having taken for the Savoie to-morrow $20,000 at 49⅛, and a million of francs at 5.22-23. At 3 o'clock bills were passed on Antwerp at 5.21, and rates flat.

The sale of a pipe cargo was reported on 'Change at reserved rates.

The sale of a cargo of coal also at reserved rates is reported.

Another cargo of tallow sold to-day, and spite of the bad telegrams we note that the price paid shows an advance of ½ real on previous sale. A cargo from Arias's saladero sold at 13½.

The German schooner Albert entered the Boca to day.

Mr Allen leaves to-morrow for the South to superintend the new telegraph line to Ayacucho.

The s.s. Dago, we hear will, owing to the high freights in Brazil, probably load in Rio for N. York.

Mr Nauts' was enveloped in friends when he entered the hall: he reports a most pleasurable trip in the Banda Oriental, with the French Minister, Count D'Amelot, but he says he noticed soldiers everywhere.

We are indebted to Captain Hesse, Commander of Salier, for late London papers. We note that there is a great row in the London papers about the Argentine guaranteed Railway shares, and the Telegraph of 15th publishes another sharp letter. The quotations of stock are the same.

To-morrow (Thursday) the Bolsa will probably close at half past 3 o'clock, such is the unexampled excitement about the great race at Lanus. A special train with every broker of the Ring leaves at 5 minutes to 4 o'clock p.m., and this afternoon people forgot exchange and tallow talking about Townhill and Covenanter. We send three special reporters to wire full details.

The Provincial Bank discounted to-day about 5 millions. A special Bank meeting will be held to-morrow night to consider the memoria.

We have received a letter from an old subscriber correcting our statement regarding the Montevidean press. We can only say that the Razon and Diario Comercial are papers we never see, and the Siglo, which we always get, is a most moderate paper in politics, when compared with any paper here. As for the Mitre party naming Mr Sarmiento, when we wrote the article referred to, the party who gave us the information not only stated that the Mitre party had split and the majority was in favor of Sarmiento, but further stated that Tejedor was agreed on as Vice President, and a careful reading of the names published in favor of Sarmiento shows that our informant was not far astray; we well knew that the list we gave was of proposed electors, but to be such they must be the men to bring Mr Sarmiento to the front; we thank, however, our correspondent for his friendly letter.

At afterhours the following sales:—
Gold—
For cash 5,000 30.50
" 5,000 30.45
March 31 10,000 30.55
Abril 30 10,000 30.70
May 31 10,000 30.70
Dec. 31 20,000 30.10

At 4 p.m. Market closed at 30.50 sellers and buyers at 30.45 for cash, and for end of month sellers at 30.60 and buyers at 30.55.

We are informed that freights at Glasgow and Newcastle are daily increasing, and vessels for coal are almost unobtainable. The freight to-day is what the cargoes were sold at a short time ago in our port. At Cardiff vessels are scarce and dear, and 35/s have been paid for a vessel for Rosario, and 28/s for Montevideo and Buenos Ayres.

Mr Bridger, of Paysandu, was welcomed on 'Change; he reports affairs in the E. Oriental showing great improvement, and the wool of his estancia Las Avarias was sold in Liverpool and fetched a shilling a pound.

From the South Market we have the following:—
Arrived by rail and carts 8,000 ar. of wool, 190 fan. maize in cob, 50 fan. wheat, and other produce.
About 10,515 ar. wool sold.
The sales were:—
Wool—1000 ar. Bellocq 112, 105
1000 Apellanis 109
1500 Trelles 115
1200 P y A L 116

If any person can inform us the correct English name of the Platino-Brazilero Telegraph Co., it is possible that we can then give the quotation in London for the stock, but at present it is difficult to find out the company on the stock exchange list.

Many of the brokers state that this was the hottest St. Patrick's day in this market since 1863. It was in every sense a mid summer's day, and some thought that as the heat was so intense it would rain before night, and "the day" would have to be postponed. At the casinos in the vicinity of the Bolsa there was a quasi celebration by brokers either Hibernian by birth or by descent, and many wore shamrocks in their hats.

We announce the new firm of Rom & Quintana, general land agents, who, owing to their wide market connection and great respectability, will doubtless do a very large business. The starting of this new firm will meet a want long felt in this market. Mr. Rom speaks English fluently, and Englishmen who wish to buy Govt. or other lands in this country, by calling on him will escape all the bother and trouble which has so long checked Government land purchases.

Dr Malaver, who is so justly popular in this market, took his chair at the Bank board on Monday last, the Doctor is considered a safe good man and an acquisition to the board. The Bank has applied to the Minister of Hacienda for payment of the amortizations overdue on the ten million loan, and the memoria for the year, which is an all important paper, was read at the board to-day, and will soon be published. It will afford us all a complete history of the market.

It is mooted in certain circles that whatever candidate is proposed for the presidency, to secure the vote of B. Aires, he must pledge himself to the admission of the paper money at the Custom House at the rate of 25 to the patacon in fact the old Oficina de Cambios rate.

The National Government has commissioned Dr M Alberdi to draw up a report of all the manufactures in the country, also the mines &c., and assigned 400 ft. as fee for the work, which if well done will prove a most interesting and instructive paper.

The following important circular from California we received by the mail:—

"San Francisco, August 31st, 1879.

"Freights.—Are steady at 42s. for wooden and 45s for iron vessels for Liverpool direct with options at proportionately increased rates. There has been for a week past a steady demand for tonnage at the above rates, which has been freely met. Wheat is coming in freely and the loading fleet are having good dispatch. No vessels are yet reported as chartered to proceed from here to the Columbia River to load, but there is no question that we shall soon be drawn upon for vessels."

The magnificent Pardo quinta, facing the Caballito Station, which will be sold at auction in a few days, is valued at 700,000 m|c., and the potreros adjoining at the quondam figure of ten paper dollars per vara cuadrada. It is a long day since potreros have been sold by the square vara. The Mora property, facing Mr Hughes's quinta, was put up at 3,500 m|c per cuadra and could not find a buyer.

As there may be many parties alarmed by the lately discovered irregularities in the public land department, we give our readers a translation of the only 2 articles of the Public Land Law in force that bear on the point, dated the 26th Dec., 1878:—

Art. 11.—States that: Any person or persons that should through fraudulent means buy a larger area than that allowed by this law in each section (30,000 hectares) shall lose the total price of that ground, which shall be resold for account of the State. The action against the fraudulent buyer shall last for five years to count from the date of the sale.

Art. 12.—No claim whatever shall be admitted by the Tribunals of the Province, between the fraudulent buyer and any third party, of whom he may have availed to escape the fulfilment (cumplimiento) of the obligations which directly or indirectly he may derive from such causes.

It is plainly stated that only the acquisition of more than 30,000 hectares is fraudulent, and that the buyer of any larger area than this forfeits his purchase money. But from this most judicious reserve does not follow any risk to "third parties" who have bona fide, and on the strength of Government titles, bought any extent of ground not exceeding 30,000 hectares. We have on the contrary good authority to declare that all Government titles in the hands of bona fide holders stand good, and that Government will never question the validity of its own title.

We call attention to the new time table of the Campana Railway, which will be found in another column.
